

Free Tibet Summer Placement - Voluntary

Two positions available

4 days a week for 3 weeks

£10 per day (to cover expenses)

Preferred in Brixton, South West London, but we will consider remote working.

The Role:

The Free Tibet Summer Placement is a new programme offering the opportunity for vital skills development specifically tailored for passionate activists.

The Placement is designed to be a flexible experience, where participants can identify and focus on the skills they most wish to develop and work with the most appropriate team. Broadly, we would be able to offer participants the opportunity to work within our campaigns, fundraising or digital teams, with specific projects within each team to work on. During the interview and induction phases of the Placement, participants will have the opportunity to learn more about the available projects and choose which they would most like to take part in.

The Placement is open to anyone who wishes to gain experience working in the NGO sector. We do not ask that applicants have any specific qualifications, but instead that they are:

- Committed to Free Tibet's mission;
- Able to work remotely for most of the Placement;
- Comfortable working as part of a team;
- A fairly confident communicator with a good grasp of spoken and written English.

The Placement will take place between Monday 8 August to Friday 26 August (three weeks). Participants will be expected to commit to four working days each week, which will be a mixture of remote and office-based working.

About Free Tibet

We stand with Tibetans around the world. For their homeland, for their future and against China's brutal occupation. We keep the eyes of the world on the atrocities being committed in Tibet. Tibet Watch shares evidence that makes them impossible to deny. Free Tibet leads campaigns that make them impossible to ignore. And together, we will build a global movement that's impossible to resist.

Tibet can be free. It must be free – and one day it will be. Together we bring that day closer.

We are looking for activists who have a clear commitment and understanding of Free Tibet's mission.

Location

Our main office is in Brixton, South London. Successful applicants will, like the rest of the team, work predominantly from home and will be supplied with a work laptop, email access and necessary software/tools. We can only welcome applicants based in the UK at this time.
