Climb Yr Wyddfa (Snowdon) for Free Tibet

Saturday 26 June 2027

 Eryri National Park (Snowdonia), Wales

On Saturday 26 June 2027, join us on the slopes of Snowdon in Wales to climb high for human rights - you'll be raising funds to support our campaigning at Free Tibet.

Yr Wyddfa (as it is known locally in Welsh) is the highest peak in Wales and at 1085m/3560ft high, it's a tough climb to reach the summit. However, you are rewarded with tremendous views over the coast and northern Snowdonia from its lofty heights. If the cloud obscures the fine views from the summit, as it often can, there is still plenty of exciting mountain terrain to view around you on your way up and down.

If you are reading this, you have already taken the very first step to start your fundraising challenge for Free Tibet! We are very excited that you want to help us raise some funds while having a fun day out hiking the magnificent Yr Wyddfa (Snowdon). To make your experience smooth and successful, this information will guide you along the way.

Set up your Crowdfunding page

Step 1

Set up your own fundraising page on Crowdfunder. Follow the step-by-step guide to get your very own page set up.

Step 2

Share your fundraising page on socials, add photos and tell your story to let people know why this challenge matters to you and why Free Tibet is important. The more personal your motives the more powerful your fundraising will be.

Step 3

Start donating to your own page. People who do usually raise 42% more than the set target. You should also provide other ways to donate for those who do not have access to the internet - spread the news far and wide!

Your target

Your target for the Climb Snowdon challenge is £500.

Every penny will support our tireless campaigning for Tibetan freedom. We keep the eyes of the world on the atrocities being committed in Tibet. We share evidence that makes them impossible to deny. We lead campaigns that make them impossible to ignore. And together, we will build a global movement that's impossible to resist.

Tibet can be free. It must be free - and one day it will be.

Together we bring that day closer.

Fundraising Tips

Capture every moment

Don't wait until the day of the hike. Share a photo of your hiking T-shirt as soon as it arrives (it will be available to buy from our online shop). And capture those summit views!

Spread the word far and wide

Share your challenge on all your social media and spread the word in person! Link your potential donors to the Free Tibet website and to your personalised crowdfunding page.

Celebrate donations

Send a personal message or share a social media update to say thank you to those who make the effort to donate to the cause - people like to be acknowledged and appreciated.

Reach out after the event

Let your donors know how it went! People might still be willing to donate even after the event. But it's also a good way to say thank you for all their support. We are planning annual challenges so who knows - they might decide to participate next year as well.

Resources

Crowdfunder - this is the page where you can set up your own fundraising page. As Free Tibet is not a charity but an NGO this is the best website to host your fundraiser. However, if you have done this before using a different website or prefer to use another website, please do so.

Free Tibet - this is where you'll find all the information on ways to give and what we are up to.

Raw Adventures - this is the organisation that will look after you on the day of the hike. We have partnered with them to make sure you make the most out of this day in complete safety and only need to focus on having fun.

Contact Us - for any enquiry: if you are not sure about some steps or if you want to get further support, contact us. We will support you all the way up to the peak of Snowdon.

For after

You did it! We will of course celebrate at the end of the walk but make the moment memorable and share pictures with friends and family. Invite your donors to celebrate the success of your challenge. And make a toast to a Free Tibet! THANK YOU!
